

The Human Treasure Hunt

You are about to take part in a human treasure hunt, searching for respectful young people who meet the descriptions provided on this list. To find these individuals, introduce yourself and ask members of the group if they are knowledgeable regarding any of the questions or if any of the descriptions listed fit their character.

1. Someone who can define the meaning of respect in his/her own words? (What does it mean?) _____

2. Someone who is proud of an accomplishment? (What did you do?) _____

3. Someone who was put down for doing the right thing, but did the right thing anyway? (What was it that you did?) _____

4. Someone who has an unusual career goal? (What is your goal?) _____

5. Someone who is happy just being herself/himself? (Why are you happy?) _____

6. Someone who does not follow the crowd? (Give an example.) _____

7. Someone who has a hobby? (What is it?) _____

8. Someone who plays a musical instrument? (What do you play?) _____

9. Someone who respects other people? (How do you show respect to others?) _____

10. Someone who has a birthday this month, and respects the fact that being a year older should make a difference in some ways? (What will you do differently?) _____
